Professional Malpractice

Brown, Goldstein & Levy has extensive experience representing victims who have been injured by the negligent acts of others. We have successfully represented the victims of medical and other kinds of malpractice, auto accident victims, young children injured because of their landlord's negligence, people injured by improperly designed products, and a host of other cases, obtaining numerous verdicts and settlements in excess of $1 million. As a firm devoted to litigation, our lawyers have the experience and commitment necessary to maximize your recovery. We have helped many others. Let us help you.
