

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 27, 2017

For more information, please contact:
Sharon Krevor-Weisbaum 410-962-1030

Two Former Department of Justice Attorneys Join Brown, Goldstein & Levy

Brown, Goldstein & Levy is proud to announce that Eve Hill and Regina Kline have joined the firm as partners.

Eve, one of the nation's leading disability rights attorneys, has returned to Brown, Goldstein & Levy after serving as Deputy Assistant Attorney General of the U.S. Department of Justice Civil Rights Division, where she was responsible for oversight of the Division's disability rights enforcement, educational civil rights enforcement, Title VI interagency coordination, and the American Indian Working Group.

Gina has joined Brown, Goldstein & Levy after serving as Senior Counsel in the Office of the Assistant Attorney General for Civil Rights at the Justice Department, where she provided legal and policy counsel regarding efforts to implement the Americans with Disabilities Act and Olmstead v. L.C.'s mandate for community integration in employment, education, law enforcement/criminal justice, homelessness, and health care.

Eve and Regina bring years of wide-ranging experience in the civil rights arena, complementing the firm's dedication to high-impact disability rights cases and its advocacy on behalf of individuals with disabilities and their families.

"They bring incredible insight into the present and future of civil rights and disability rights law. They are a perfect complement to our practice," said Sharon Krevor-Weisbaum, the firm's managing partner.

Additional information on Eve's and Gina's experience can be found at <http://www.browngold.com/team/eve-hill> and <http://www.browngold.com/team/gina-kline>.

###