

BROWN GOLDSTEIN LEVY

Brett Watson

Fellow 2013-2015

Profile

Brett Watson joined Brown Goldstein & Levy as a Disability Rights Fellow in September 2013. His practice focused on disability rights and other civil litigation.

During law school, Brett completed several internships as part of the cooperative legal education program at Northeastern University School of Law. Notably, he interned for the Honorable Norman H. Stahl, U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit. He also interned at the Washington Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights and Urban Affairs and Cohen Milstein Sellers & Toll PLLC in Washington, DC, as well as at the Massachusetts Attorney General's Office, Division of Open Government.

Prior to law school, Brett was a Field Representative for U.S. Representative Tammy Baldwin, for whom he served as a congressional liaison to constituent organizations and local government officials in Wisconsin.

At the University of Wisconsin - Madison, Brett received the Theodore Herfurth Award for Initiative and Efficiency, awarded for demonstrating productivity in the classroom and the community.

Education

- Northeastern University School of Law, J.D., 2013
- University of Wisconsin, B.A., 2007

Bar Admissions

- Maryland
- District of Columbia