Sharon Krevor-Weisbaum Recognized in Maryland's Top 100 Women

Brown, Goldstein & Levy is proud to announce that The Daily Record named our Managing Partner, Sharon Krevor-Weisbaum, to its 2017 listing of Maryland's Top 100 Women. A record number of 435 women were nominated this year for the statewide honor. This is the second time Sharon has been selected for this award.

The Daily Record began Maryland's Top 100 Women in 1996 to recognize outstanding achievements by women demonstrated through professional accomplishments, community leadership and mentoring.

Sharon is actively involved in the firm's disability rights practice, represents non-profit and for-profit community-based providers that support people with disabilities and represents health care practitioners before state disciplinary boards. Sharon has extensive experience representing students with disabilities and adults in need of developmental and mental health support services.
